

Hairspray - the all-singing, all-dancing fantastic musical that is about to hit our big screens!!!

Straight from Broadway - the BIG FAT Musical Comedy Hit!!!

There's nothing like a good-old musical!!!

It was once a 1975 film, then it was an award-winning Broadway musical. And now - it has been turned into a BIG FAT Musical Comedy Hit, which is set to be absolutely amazing. With an all-star cast (John Travolta, Michel Pfeiffer, Queen Latifah, Zac Efron, etc.)

You must be asking what all the fuss is about. Well, let's give you an idea of the basic storyline.

Tracy Turnblad, a big girl with big hair and an even bigger heart, has only one passion-dancing. Her dream is to appear on The Corny Collins Show, Baltimores hippest dance party on TV. Tracy seems a natural fit for the show except for one not-so-little problem - she doesn't fit in. Her plus-sized figure has always set her apart from the cool crowd, which she is reminded of by her loving but overly protective plus-sized mother, Edna. That doesn't stop Tracy because if there is one thing that this girl knows, it's that she was born to dance. After wowing Corny Collins at her high school dance, Tracy wins a spot on his show and becomes an instant on-air sensation, much to the chagrin of the show's reigning princess, Amber Von Tussle, and her scheming mother, Velma, who runs television station WYZZ. Even worse for Amber is the fact that it's not just the audience who loves the new girl in town; Amber's sweetheart, Link Larkin, seems to be smitten with Tracy's charms as well. This dance party gets personal as a bitter feud erupts between the girls as they compete for the coveted Miss Teenage Hairspray crown. At school, however, a short stint in detention and raised-eyebrows caused by the budding relationship between her best friend

Penny Pingleton and Seaweed opens Tracy's eyes to a bigger issue than the latest dance craze or the coolest hairdo-racial inequality. Throwing caution to the wind, she leads a march with Motormouth Maybelle to fight for integration and winds up with an arrest warrant instead. Tracy is on the lam now and goes underground-literally-to her best friend Penny's basement. Has Tracys luck finally run out? Will she miss the final dance-off against Amber and forfeit the title of Miss Hairspray, or will she sing and dance her way out of trouble again? That is the basic storyline (thanks very much to Yahoo Movies for it), and I looks like it will be absolutely amazing. You have to go and see it
